- Local Government Act 2002;
- Local Government (Electoral Legislation and Māori Wards and Māori Constituencies) Amendment Act 2024

Māori ward and constituency polls | Te pōti mō ngā rohe me ngā tūru Māori

Following the introduction of the Local Government (Electoral Legislation and Māori Wards and Māori Constituencies) Amendment Act 2024, any Council (city, district or region) that established Māori wards or constituencies since 2020 without holding a poll, is required to hold a poll with their 2025 elections.

The poll, for all electors, is a vote to KEEP or REMOVE Māori wards or constituencies for the relevant Council.

The outcome of the poll is binding and will apply for at least the next two triennial elections (2028 and 2031).

Whakatāne District Council established Māori constituencies in 2021 (by resolution), and is required to hold a poll with its 2025 elections.

Whakatāne District Council is required to be neutral on this poll.

Key message

The electoral system to be used for the 2025 elections is First Past the Post (FPP).

Those local government organisations holding elections within the Whakatāne District Council area using the FPP electoral system are:

- Whakatāne District Council
- Bay of Plenty Regional Council

Understanding FPP

When you vote in an FPP election, you tick the name of the candidates(s) you most prefer, up to the number of vacancies.

When the votes are counted, the candidates(s) with the most votes is/are elected.

If there is one vacancy, you can vote for one candidate.

If there are three vacancies, you can vote for up to three candidates.

Key message

A candidate for the Whakatāne District Council must be:

- a New Zealand citizen; and
- a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand); [Section 25, Local Electoral Act 2001]
- nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district.

Candidate restrictions

Restrictions on a candidate for the Whakatāne District Council are:

- a candidate may seek nomination for Mayor, Council and Community Board but if elected to the Council and a Community Board, the Council position is filled and the Community Board position is vacated (and filled by the next highest polling unelected Community Board candidate).
- a candidate may seek nomination for Mayor, Council and Community Board but cannot also seek nomination for the Bay of Plenty Regional Council (i.e. a candidate may stand for the Whakatāne District Council or the Bay of Plenty Regional Council, but not both).
[Section 58 Local Electoral Act 2001]

- a candidate may stand for one ward only (not multiple wards).
- a candidate seeking nomination to a Community Board where the Community Board is subdivided for electoral purposes, can only be nominated to one subdivision of that Community Board.
- a candidate for Mayor or Council (or candidate's spouse) cannot be a person concerned or interested in contracts over $25,000 with Whakatāne District Council.
[Section 3(1) Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968] This restriction may be waived, and it is recommended that advice from Audit New Zealand is sought.
- an employee of the Whakatāne District Council who is elected as Mayor or Councillor must resign from their position as an employee of the Whakatāne District Council before taking up their position. An employee will need to alert their manager of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged.
[Section 41(5) Local Government Act 2002]

Candidate profile statement

Every candidate may provide the electoral officer with a candidate profile statement with their nomination. This statement must not exceed 150 words and can contain information about the candidate, their qualifications and skills applicable to the position for which they are standing and their policies/intentions if elected to office.

The candidate profile statement must be true and accurate and the electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in this statement.

The profile may include a recent passport-sized colour photograph.

Candidate profile statements will be printed in plain text, without formatting i.e.:

- no bullet points;
- no bold or underlining;
- no italics;
- no quote marks.

These will be included with the voting document sent to each elector by the electoral officer, as well as being placed on the Council's website.

Note that any spelling or grammatical errors will not be corrected, and candidates are therefore reminded to check their candidate profile statement prior to submitting their nomination.

The candidate profile statement may be submitted in both English and Māori (maximum 150 words in either language) but the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other.

Should all or part of a candidate profile statement be provided in a language other than English or Māori, it must not exceed 150 words in total. Any language other than English or te reo Māori is required to be provided in an electronic graphic file. As an example, a candidate could submit a candidate profile statement consisting of say 50 words in English, 50 words in Samoan and 50 words in Tongan. The total number of words cannot exceed 150.

If submitting an electronic graphic file containing other languages (other than English and te reo Māori), all languages must be supplied as a single image. If there is more than one language translated, then these are to be all supplied together in a single image.

The image file to be supplied must meet the following criteria:

- PNG format;
- black and white;
- 600 dpi;
- maximum file size 400kB;
- the image being 1300 pixels high and 2000 pixels wide.

Candidates are also required to submit with their candidate profile statement the following information:

- i. whether or not the candidate's principal place of residence (where the candidate is registered as a parliamentary elector) is/is not in the area (e.g. ward) the candidate is seeking election for; [Section 61(2)(ca) Local Electoral Act 2001] and
- ii. each position the candidate is seeking election for (e.g. Mayor and Council) [Section 61(2)(cb) Local Electoral Act 2001]

Section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 states the following:

- (1) Every candidate may, provide to the electoral officer a candidate profile statement that complies with subsection (2) and, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (2) A candidate profile statement -
  - a. if -
    - i. in English or Māori or both, must not exceed 150 words in each of the languages used in the statement;
    - ii. in a language other than English or Māori, must not exceed 150 words, or the equivalent, if the language uses symbols rather than words (including any translation of those words into another language provided by the candidate); and
  - b. must be provided to the electoral officer together with the nomination paper and other things referred to in section 55(2)(f); and
  - c. must be confined to information concerning the candidate (including any group or organisation with which the candidate claims under section 55(4) to be affiliated, or their status as an independent candidate, and the candidate's contact details), and the candidate's policies and intentions if elected to office; and
  - ca. must state whether or not the candidate's principal place of residence, being the address in respect of which the candidate is registered as a parliamentary elector, is in the local government area for which the candidate seeks election (for example, either "My principal place of residence is in the Lambton Ward" or "My principal place of residence is not in the Lambton Ward"); and
  - cb. if the candidate is seeking election to any other positions in elections to which this Act applies (under section 7), must specify each position and state that the candidate is seeking to be elected to the positions; and
  - d. must comply with any prescribed requirements; and
  - e. may include a recent photograph of the candidate alone.

- (2A) The information required by subsection (2)(ca) and (cb) does not count for the purposes of the word limit under subsection (2)(a).
- (3) If a candidate profile statement is submitted in Māori and English, the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language.
- (4) If the electoral officer is not satisfied that a candidate profile statement complies with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3), the electoral officer must, as soon as practicable, return the statement to the candidate and must—
  - a. specify the concerns of the electoral officer and the reasons for those concerns; and
  - b. unless the candidate profile statement does not comply with subsection (2)(b), specify a period, which must not be less than 3 days from the date of return of the statement, during which the candidate may submit an amended candidate profile statement to the electoral officer.
- (5) A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if subsection (4)(b) applies to the candidate and the candidate—
  - a. fails to submit an amended candidate profile statement within the period specified in subsection (4)(b); or
  - b. submits an amended candidate profile statement that, in the opinion of the electoral officer, does not comply with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (6) An electoral officer -
  - a. is not required to verify or investigate any information included in a candidate profile statement;
  - b. may include, in or with any candidate profile statement that is published, displayed, or distributed, any disclaimer concerning the accuracy of the information contained in the statement that the electoral officer considers appropriate;
  - c. is not liable in respect of -
    - i. any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or
    - ii. the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

Completion of nomination paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific ward, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific ward).

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.

Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the electoral office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (e.g. mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated)'.

Individual candidates, not part of an organisation or group, may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).

A candidate claiming a specific affiliation must supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (i.e. letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations. Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones:

- that might cause offence; or
- are likely to confuse or mislead electors; or
- are election slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group.

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(2) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.

Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

Completing and submitting your nomination paper online

Candidates using the online nominations portal at esp.electionservices.co.nz/lge2025/WK will be required to create an account (username and password) before selecting and starting their nomination.

This allows candidates to progressively complete their nomination. Any progress can be saved and accessed again at a later date before nominations close.

Candidates will be required to enter details of their two nominators directly into the portal including their full name, residential address (as they appear on the parliamentary roll) and email address.

An email will be sent to both nominators, requesting confirmation that they support the candidate's nomination.

The nominators will be required to follow the link contained within the email, confirm their details and consent to nominate, and electronically sign their name.

If completing and submitting a nomination paper online, candidates will need to provide (and upload to the portal):

- proof of $200 nomination deposit (e.g. evidence of bank transfer);
- evidence of NZ citizenship;

- passport-sized colour photo (optional);
- letter endorsing affiliation (if applicable).

A candidate will only be able to submit their nomination once they have completed all required fields and their two nominators have completed their parts, confirming that they support the candidate's nomination.

If submitting a nomination online, it is recommended that candidates are prepared with this information and start the process early.

A receipt will be issued to acknowledge that a nomination has been received. This receipt does not constitute an acknowledgment that the nomination paper is in order.

Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate's name appears on the Parliamentary Roll and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. ward). Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections).

Payment of the nomination deposit can be made by electronic bank transfer, eftpos or cash. Evidence of an electronic bank transfer will be required to accompany the nomination.

Electronic bank payment details are:

Reference:	Nomination

The lodgement of nomination papers should not be left to the last minute. Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may be insufficient time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

Candidates are encouraged to submit their nominations online, but nominations can also be returned by mail. However, should a nomination be received by the electoral officer or electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Cancellation of Nomination

A candidate is able to withdraw their nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday, 1 August 2025). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw their nomination. [Section 69, Local Electoral Act 2001]

However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.

'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because the person is suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office. [Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001]

An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

Key message

People interested in standing for election are invited to attend a candidate information briefing to hear about the electoral process (the dos and don'ts), responsibilities and expectations if elected etc.

Standing for elected office

For more information on standing for elected office, refer to www.whakatane.govt.nz and especially the Local Government New Zealand produced videos on becoming an elected member.

Briefing dates

Candidate information briefings are being held to provide an opportunity for those members of the public who are considering standing for office to find out:

- how the organisation is structured;
- the skills required, the role and responsibilities of elected representatives;
- matters pertaining to the elections (eligibility, nominations, timetable, induction process and remuneration).

Registration to attend is not required.

Details of the candidate information briefings are yet to be confirmed. Details including dates, times and locations will be published on Council's website: www.whakatane.govt.nz once confirmed.

Key message

Election campaigning can commence anytime and may continue up to and including election day. However there are certain constraints candidates need to be aware of.

Election signs are permitted on private property, provided the landowner's permission is given. Signs are not permitted on Council roads, Council reserves or any other Council property.

All election signs can only be displayed up to 8 weeks before election day (from 16 August 2025) and must be removed within 3 days of the election (by midnight 14 October 2025.)

All signs must be erected in a stable fashion, not being a hazard to public or traffic safety and comply with Council's policy on election signs which is detailed on page 29 of this handbook.

Campaigning

Election material cannot contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (e.g. under the Defamation Act 1992);
- an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter;
- an imitation voting document which has the Māori ward poll question with any direction or indication as to how a person should vote, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.

Use of Council resources

Candidates are not permitted to use Council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources include, but are not limited to, the Council's logo, crest or branding, website, Facebook page, X account (formerly Twitter), or any other forms of social media, tablets, computers, ipads, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire). This applies to either sitting members, Council staff or other candidates in any context that could reasonably be construed as campaigning for elections.

Social media

Social media can be a useful tool for candidates for campaigning purposes and electioneering. However candidates should be aware of any Council social media guidelines for candidates and should comply with these at all times.

Council's social media channels are Council resources and must remain politically neutral at all times. Council will promote elections and the importance of voting but will not associate these posts with any candidates.

Council social media accounts will not follow any candidates. This may result in your account being unfollowed. Council's social media accounts are not permitted to be used as a communications channel by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for promotion, electioneering or campaigning. This also applies to all social media accounts owned by Council-controlled organisations.

You may not rate, review, check-in or tag the Council's social media channels in your own posts or comments.

Candidates cannot reply to the Council's social media posts. Any posts that do this will be removed immediately.

Candidates may share the Council's posts to their private social media channel(s) and comment. It will then be their responsibility to manage the discussion and activity on their personal social media channels.

Council's social media accounts are constantly monitored, and any campaign related or electioneering content (including posts related to nominations and candidacy) will be removed immediately.

Candidates should be aware that election advertising, using any media, including on social media, must identify the true name and contact details of the person under whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act 2001] This may be details of the candidate or their agent, and may be included on a profile picture, or within the bio section of a page.

For example: 'All content/images contained on this social media page/channel are authorised by [name], [contact details]'.

Candidate safety

Being a candidate in Local Government elections means stepping into the public eye. With that comes increased scrutiny, and unfortunately, it may also raise the risk of abuse or harassment directed at you or your family.

It's important to take proactive steps to help keep yourself and your loved ones safe during this time. If you experience serious threats or harassment, you should report them to the Police. For situations that may not warrant police involvement but are still concerning, there are some useful resources below.

Some practical steps to consider now include:

- Use campaign-specific social media accounts rather than your personal ones and restrict access where possible.
- Set up a dedicated campaign email address or phone number instead of using personal or work contact details.
- Be aware of your surroundings when attending public events — know where exits are and stay mindful of your environment.
- Consider your responses in difficult situations. If someone becomes agitated, try to remain calm and look for an opportunity to signal for help or safely end the conversation.

Balancing your public presence with personal safety can be challenging. You want to engage with the community and share your vision while also protecting yourself and those close to you. It's important to consider how you will manage this balance.

Remember: abuse and harassment are never acceptable. Your election campaign should be an exciting and rewarding experience. For many candidates, it is. However, being prepared and informed can help you handle any challenges that may arise.

Here is a list of other resources that offer advice on safety:

- women.govt.nz/womens-safety/free-lead-toolkit
- ownyouronline.govt.nz/personal/get-protected/guides/how-to-protect-your-privacy-online/
- Online abuse and harassment - Netsafe - What to do | Netsafe

Offences

Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how they should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this, particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.

Election offences are detailed for your information on page 39 of this handbook. Please refer to them for your own protection.

Election advertising

Election advertising, using any media, must show an authorisation statement. This statement must include:

- the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced; and
- the contact details of the person under whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act]

This includes election advertising on signs, in newspapers, on flyers and posters, on a vehicle and on election websites.

Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

1113 Advertisements for candidates

- (1) No person may publish or cause to be published in any newspaper, periodical, notice, poster, pamphlet, handbill, billboard, or card, or broadcast or permit to be broadcast over any radio or television station, any advertisement that is used or appears to be used to promote or procure the election of a candidate at an election, unless subsection (2) or subsection (4) applies.
- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
  - a. the publication of that advertisement is authorised in writing by the candidate or the candidate's agent or, in the case of an advertisement relating to more than 1 candidate, the candidates or an agent acting for all of those candidates; and
  - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out the true name and contact details of the person or person for whom or at whose direction it is published.
- (3) A candidate is not responsible for an act committed by an agent without the consent or connivance of the candidate.
- (4) A person may publish or cause to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
  - a. the publication of the advertisement is endorsed by an organisation or body representing residents or ratepayers in the community or district in which the advertisement is published; and
  - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out -
    - i. the true name and contact details of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published; and
    - ii. the true name of the organisation or body that has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
- (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.
- (7) In this section, contact details means 1 or more of the following:
  - a. a residential or business address;
  - b. an email address;
  - c. a post office box number;
  - d. a phone number;
  - e. a link to a page on an Internet site, if the page contains 1 or more of the contact details specified in paragraphs (a) to (d).

Key message

Candidates need to be aware to keep a record of all donations received and expenses incurred in their election campaign. Election expenditure limits will apply and these depend on the population size of the area of the election the candidate is standing for.

Every candidate must, by law, complete an Electoral Donations and Expenses Return declaring all donations and expenses and forward it to the electoral office by 11 December 2025.

Electoral expenses

Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on their campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000 *

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST]

Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise).

These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.

If a candidate is standing for more than one position (e.g. Mayor and Council) then the higher limit applies (not both combined).

The population distribution for Whakatāne District Council (population estimates as at 30 June 2024) is:

Ward	Population	Limit
Rangitāiki General	6,960	$7,000
Whakatāne-Ōhope General	14,750	$14,000
Te Urewera General	3,280	$3,500
Rangitāiki Māori	3,970	$3,500
Kāpū-te-rangi Māori	4,550	$3,500
Toi ki Uta Māori	4,780	$3,500
Total/Mayor	38,290 †

Community Board	Population	Limit
Rangitāiki	10,200	$14,000
Whakatāne-Ōhope	19,900	$14,000
Tāneatua	4,680	$3,500
Murupara	3,550	$3,500
Galatea-Waiōhau Subdivision	1,100	$3,500
Murupara Subdivision	1,860	$3,500
Te Urewera Subdivision	590	$3,500
Total	38,330 †

source: Statistics New Zealand as at 30 June 2024

For example, estimated expenditure limit for the Mayor is $20,000 (including GST), based on 38,330 population (as at 30 June 2024).

The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day to the close of election day (i.e. 11 July 2025 to 11 October 2025). Legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.

Nomination deposits, voluntary labour and election sign framework are not electoral expenses and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Electoral donations

a. Candidate donations

A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.

Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.

b. A candidate donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example items sold at a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not deemed a donation:

- volunteer labour;
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf, that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or

- money provided by the candidate for their own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

c. Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.

The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.

If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

d. Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.

When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor;
- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

e. Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.

If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, they may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (by 11 December 2025). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.

The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out —

- the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
- the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
- details of the candidate's electoral expenses.

The details of every electoral donation are —

- the name of the donor; and
- the address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are —

- the date the donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation; and
- the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid.

Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be vouched by an invoice or a bill and a receipt.

Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of seven years. During this period, the returns:

- are placed on Council's website;
- can be inspected by any person;
- copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

Relevant legislation

Relevant definitions as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

Key message

Community boards act as advocates for their communities and are an important link to Council.

Legislation

Relevant legislation relating to membership of community boards is found in the Local Electoral Act 2001.

A person elected as a Councillor and a Community Board Member within the same ward/community district is deemed to be elected as a Councillor and a Community Board Member, but is then deemed to have vacated the office as a Community Board Member, and the next highest polling unelected Community Board candidate is elected. (If there is no highest polling unelected candidate, an extraordinary vacancy occurs and a by-election is required.) [Sections 88A, 88B, Local Electoral Act 2001]

If a person is elected as a Councillor and a Community Board Member (the community being in a different ward to the ward containing the community), that person is considered an elected member to both.

In Whakatāne District Council, six members are elected to the Tāneatua Community Board, the Rangitāiki Community Board, the Murupara Community Board and the Whakatāne-Ōhope Community Board.

For Whakatāne District Council, all Community Boards also have two members appointed by Council.

Appointed members to a Community Board must be appointed by Council from the elected Councillors representing the ward (general or Māori) in which the community is situated [Section 19F, Local Electoral Act 2001]

Key message

All elected members of Whakatāne District Council are required to comply with the duties and obligations of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of Council. At Whakatāne District Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'. The boards of Council-controlled organisations and their chief executives are also officers.

As a PCBU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), Council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that Council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility Councillors and local boards have to exercise due diligence over Council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to Council's safety culture, and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage Council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

- (1) Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for Council.
- (2) Understand Council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
- (3) Ensure Council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
- (4) Ensure Council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
- (5) Ensure Council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
- (6) Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.

Whakatāne District Council Community Boards 2025

Structure of Whakatāne District Council and Role of Community Boards - Te hananga o te kaunihera rohe Whakatāne me te mahi a nga poari hapori

Key message

Currently the Council meets on an eight-weekly cycle, Committees meet between an eight-weekly and quarterly cycle, and Community Boards meet on a seven-weekly cycle.

Whakatāne District Council and Community Boards

Whakatāne District Council comprises the Mayor and 10 Councillors who are elected members.

To assist in the efficient running of business, the Council generally appoints committees and sub committees to conduct its business under delegation where it is empowered to do so. The standing committee structure can be found on:

- www.whakatane.govt.nz/sites/www.whakatane.govt.nz/files/documents/2025-03/delegations-register-2022-2025-governance.pdf

The Mayor is a member of all committees except the Hearings Committee.

The committee structure and appointment of Chairpersons and members is recommended by the Mayor following the elections.

Community Boards

There are four Community Boards covering Whakatāne District Council area, namely Rangitāiki Community Board, Murupara Community Board, Tāneatua Community Board and Whakatāne-Ōhope Community Board.

Each Community Board is separate from the Council but can only operate in terms of the delegations granted to it by the Council. Whakatāne District Council has granted a number of delegations to Community Boards concerning local services provided by the Council.

Legislation

The Local Government Act 2002 is the main legislation that grants powers, duties and functions to the Council and Community Boards.

There are other pieces of legislation that impact on the roles and duties of elected representatives in Whakatāne District, such as the Resource Management Act for the hearing of Resource Consents, the Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act, which sets out rules governing such things as pecuniary interest, and the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 which gives everyone the ability to request access to official information from local authorities.

Post election processes

No elected member can act until they have given their statutory declaration at the inaugural meeting of the Council or Community Board as the case may be.

The declaration requires that each member declares:

"I, AB, declare that I will faithfully and impartially, and according to the best of my skill and judgement, execute and perform, in the best interests of Whakatāne District (or for Community Boards, the name of the community e.g. the Rangitāiki Community) the powers, authorities, and duties vested in, or imposed upon, me as (Mayor or a member) of Whakatāne District Council (or name of the Community Board) by virtue of the Local Government Act 2002, the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 or any other Act."

This declaration applies to the Mayor, Councillors, Community Board Members and Chairpersons of Committees.

Once members have been sworn in, a series of briefings, training and induction meetings are held to assist the new elected members in settling into their new duties as quickly and efficiently as possible.

This will include briefings on key projects and issues relevant to the annual plan process, which commences in November.

Other appointments

There are a number of Joint Committees that the Councillors will be appointed to on behalf of the Council.

Appointments may also be made to other organisations.

Management structure

Staff are headed by the chief executive who is directly responsible to the Council.

The Council only employs the chief executive and all other staff are employed by the chief executive.

The key role of staff is to implement decisions of the Council, to provide advice to the Council, its committees and Community Boards to ensure that all functions, duties and powers are properly performed, and to ensure the effective, efficient and economic management of the activities of the Council and Community Boards are undertaken.

In Whakatāne District the executive team comprises the chief executive and six general managers. Each general manager has responsibility for reporting to Committees and managing various groups of the organisation.

Requirements and time commitment of members

Depending on the role, whether it be the Mayor, Deputy Mayor, Committee Chairperson, Councillor, Community Board Chairperson or Community Board Member, the time commitment can be significant.

The main requirements for elected members are to attend meetings, read reports, attend briefings, conduct site visits and respond to constituent enquiries.

Elected members need to be aware of the impact that can occur on families as a result of being elected as a Mayor, Councillor or Community Board member

This can range from needing to take time off work to attend meetings, receiving telephone calls at various times of the day and night, or being asked to address issues when shopping at the supermarket, watching sport, attending church, or even walking the dog.

Some members of the community see elected representatives as being 24-hour, 7-days a week, full-time, fully-contactable people. This can depend on an issue currently before the Council or a Community Board, but generally most citizen contact with elected representatives is made at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
