

VERIFICATION SERVICES FOR FOOD CONTROL PLAN OPERATORS

Whakatāne District Council has received formal recognition from Ministry for Primary Industries (MPI) for verification of Food Control Plans and National Programme operations. Whakatāne District Council, like all territorial registration authorities, have exclusivity for verifying template FCPs under the Act.

In signing this application, you have agreed to the terms and conditions of the verification service for your business/es as detailed in your application. The terms and conditions of this service can be found on our website: www.whakatane.govt.nz. If you cannot access these terms and conditions, a hardcopy version can be provided.

Food Control Plans (FCPs) are provided for under Part 2, Subpart 2 of the Food Act 2014 (Act). The Act requires that new businesses have their first full initial verification scheduled within 6 weeks of registration. Timing of the subsequent verification is set by the outcome of the previous verification. The fees and charges for FCP operators are set by Whakatāne District Council in its Annual Plan Fees & Charges Schedule.

Your help to ensure verifications occur within the required timeframes is appreciated.

Our contact details are (07) 306 0500 and environmentalhealth@whakatane.govt.nz
